2012 Legislature

85 (2) Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. s. 2265, an injunction for 86 protection against domestic violence issued by a court of a 87 foreign state must be accorded full faith and credit by the 88 courts of this state and enforced by a law enforcement agency as 89 if it were the order of a Florida court issued under s. 741.30, 90 s. 741.31, s. 784.046, ~~or~~ s. 784.047, s. 784.0485, or s.
91 784.0487, and provided that the court had jurisdiction over the 92 parties and the matter and that reasonable notice and 93 opportunity to be heard was given to the person against whom the 94 order is sought sufficient to protect that person's right to due
95 process. Ex parte foreign injunctions for protection are not 96 eligible for enforcement under this section unless notice and
97 opportunity to be heard have been provided within the time
98 required by the foreign state or tribal law, and in any event
99 within a reasonable time after the order is issued, sufficient 100 to protect the respondent's due process rights.

101 Section 2. Section 784.048, Florida Statutes, is amended to 102 read:

116 (c) "Credible threat" means a verbal or nonverbal threat,
117 or a combination of the two, including threats delivered by

120 reasonable fear for his or her safety or the safety of his or 121 her family members or individuals closely associated with the 122 person, and which is made with the apparent ability to carry out
123 the threat to cause such harm. It is not necessary to prove that 124 the person making the threat had the intent to actually carry 125 out the threat. The present incarceration of the person making
126 the threat is not a bar to prosecution under this section ~~made~~ 127 ~~with the intent to cause the person who is the target of the~~ 128 ~~threat to reasonably fear for his or her safety. The threat must~~ 176 any offense under s. 794.011, s. 800.04, or s. 847.0135(5).

177 (9) (a) The sentencing court shall consider, as a part of 178 any sentence, issuing an order restraining the defendant from 179 any contact with the victim, which may be valid for up to 10
180 years, as determined by the court. It is the intent of the 181 Legislature that the length of any such order be based upon the 182 seriousness of the facts before the court, the probability of 183 future violations by the perpetrator, and the safety of the 184 victim and his or her family members or individuals closely
185 associated with the victim.

186 (b) The order may be issued by the court even if the 187 defendant is sentenced to a state prison or a county jail or 188 even if the imposition of the sentence is suspended and the 189 defendant is placed on probation.

190 Section 3. Section 784.0485, Florida Statutes, is created

209 any such cause of action shall be alleged in the petition.

210 (c) The cause of action for an injunction may be sought by 211 any affected person.

212 (d) The cause of action for an injunction does not require 213 either party to be represented by an attorney.

214 (e) The court may not issue mutual orders of protection;
215 however, the court is not precluded from issuing separate 216 injunctions for protection against stalking if each party has 217 complied with this section. Compliance with this section may not 218 be waived.

219 (f) Notwithstanding chapter 47, a petition for an 220 injunction for protection against stalking may be filed in the 221 circuit where the petitioner currently or temporarily resides,
222 where the respondent resides, or where the stalking occurred.

238 (b) A bond is not required by the court for the entry of 239 an injunction.

366 respondent appears at the hearing or has received reasonable
367 notice of the hearing. A denial of a petition for an ex parte
368 injunction shall be by written order noting the legal grounds
369 for denial. If the only ground for denial is no appearance of an 370 immediate and present danger of stalking, the court shall set a

372 earliest possible time. This paragraph does not affect a 373 petitioner's right to promptly amend any petition, or otherwise

399 4. Ordering such other relief as the court deems necessary

423 4. The date that the respondent was served with the

425 (d) The fact that a separate order of protection is 428 equally at fault or equally endangered.

429 (e) A final judgment on an injunction for protection 430 against stalking entered pursuant to this section must, on its
