TAMPA — The Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce selected the winners of the 2017 Small Business of the Year Awards at a ceremony Wednesday night at the David A. Straz, Jr. Center for the Performing Arts. More than 600 attendees celebrated the accomplishments of Tampa Bay's small business community.

The chamber recognized Vincent Cassidy, president & CEO of Majesty Title Services, LLC, as the Outstanding Small Business Leader of the Year. Cassidy built his full-service title and settlement agency from the ground up.

Four additional awards were doled out based on three criteria: financial success, community involvement and ethical business practices. The winners were:

- Startup: VetCor LLC — a restoration company that handles water and mold damage challenges in commercial and residential properties.
- 5-20 Employees: Sessums Black Caballero Ficarrotta, P.A. — a legal services firm focused on family law.
- 21-50 Employees: Davis Industrial — Formerly known as BMG Conveyor Services of Florida, an industrial services company that specializes in conveyor maintenance, metal fabrication, and power transmission.
- 51-250 Employees: NewSouth Window Solutions — sells and installs energy efficient windows and doors with hurricane impact options.

Vincent Cassidy, president and CEO of Majesty Title Services, was named Outstanding Small Business Leader of the Year by the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce.
